The Activities Award was given to Alice Lane for outstanding contribution to the school. The Assembly came to a close with the singing of the class ode.

Friday morning at 11 a.m. the class went to Thompson Pond at Oxford, Maine for their class picnic. Everyone had a very enjoyable time which will always be remembered.

The Alumni Banquet was held in the William Bingham Gymnasium at 12:30 p.m. on Saturday, June 11th, with Reverend John F. Fitzsimmons as guest speaker. At 3 p.m. there was the usual Alumni versus Varsity baseball game. Then at 4 p.m. the Headmaster held a tea at his home.

The climax of the day was the Senior Reception at 8 p.m. in the William Bingham Gymnasium. Gordon Howe and his Orchestra furnished the music.

The Baccalaureate Service was held at 10:30 a.m. on Sunday, June 12, at the Congregational Church. The sermon was given by Reverend Robert W. Towner.

At 2:30 p.m. Sunday afternoon, the Commencement Program began. The Class of '55 marched into the William Bingham Gymnasium to the strains of Pomp and Circumstance.

With the Juniors

Whoosh! The 1955 - 1956 school year for the Juniors starts off with a bang! After tackling the hard courses of our Junior year, we discover that there are also many outside activities in which to participate. So off we go seeking adventure, new skills, and fun to make our year complete. In both boys' and girls' sports as well as an abundant supply of musical talent, our class is able to claim some of Gould's outstanding people. Several talented new members of the Junior class have been discovered to add to the ever growing and improving list. This fall the outcome of our elections for class officers was as follows:

President	Elizabeth Stevens
Vice-President	Jack Reid
Secretary	Patsy Elliman
Treasurer	Bill Beebe

In our varied Junior class, we believe that each member has a certain characteristic which is most prominent among the rest! Let's imagine what the outcome would be if:

- JACK ALLEN — ever got in a fight!
- BILL ANDERSON — cleaned up his room!
- SUE ANDREWS — became allergic to water . . .
and to the Navy!
- MERRILY APPLETON — had a sports car in which one wouldn't bump his head!
- BRENDA BARLOW — went to Northwestern University.
- DONNA BARTLETT — forgot her ballet training!
- ROBERTA BEAN — wasn't such a little devil!
- BILL BEEBE — was Arabia's greatest Olympic skier!
- KEITH BENNETT — got into a heated argument!
- ALBION BEVERAGE — wasn't getting into mischief!
- MYRNA BLAKE — made popcorn without salt!
- TALI BURNS — hadn't had the past experience in cheerleading that she has had!
- JUNE BURRIS — could repair her own wrecked car fender!
- CATHIE CARVER — had a five foot long bed!
- NANCY CORKUM — knew more of her history for one day and less about Arabia!
- STANLEY CORNWALL — became a big manufacturing tycoon!
- SYLVIA CRAM — didn't have to chew that butt holder so much!
- BOBBIE CUMMINS — knew Ali Baba and the Forty Thieves!
- LILLIAN CURRIER — made a mistake in counting change at the theater!
- ELIZABETH DOUGLASS — didn't sing at banquets!
- PATSY ELLIMAN — could fly like Peter Pan
as well as having the hair cut!
- RICHARD ENMAN — wasn't always drawing funny cartoons!
- JEANNE ERNST — kept her residence at Hillier's!
- ANN FERRIS — suddenly took to skiing rather than to basketball!
- DAVID FOX — flunked algebra!
- JOHN GIDDINGS — made more than two points in one basketball game!
- JUDY GRAFFMAN — wore a size 50 dress!
- CARLA GROVER — accidently got her fingers cut off!
- HOWARD GUNTHER — got lost while driving the school bus!
- NANCY HIBBARD — the sidewalks of New York folded up at 9:00 P.M.!
- MARY HUFFER — didn't belong to the International Friendship League!
- TIM JONES — came back to Gould!
- GERRY KING — played Pied Piper!
- WALTER KITTREDGE — didn't have a witty retort ready for history class!
- KENNETH KNOWLAND — couldn't sing and play all those wonderful hill billy songs!
- PHILIP KORHONEN — ran out of breath in a cross country race!
- BARB LEACH — lived in the dorm!
- LORRAINE LEIGHTON — wasn't our able goalie and manager!
- ROBERT LORD — couldn't play that hot "licorice stick"!
- MARY LUXTON — had black eye brows!
- ARTHUR MILLS — wasn't such a ladies' man!
- BLAINE MILLS — became mayor of Locke Mills!
- DIANNE MITCHELL — knew Old Mother Goose personally!
- EVA MORRILL — got mixed up with the ham and bean people.
- JIM MURPHY — didn't "Dream of Jeannie With the Light Brown Hair"!

BETTY MURRELL — ran out of money to buy do-nuts and cokes!

RUSSELL PATTERSON — couldn't jazz up those numbers with his trumpet!

JACK REID — kept out of trouble in study hall!

GEORGE REYNOLDS — got pinched up on the West Bethel flats!

TIM RICHARDSON — wasn't such a personable fellow!

WILLIAM RIPLEY — stayed out of somebody's hair for ten minutes!

DENNIS ROBERTSON — did his Spanish assignments!

ELDRED ROLFE — got another deer like the one in '53!

JEANNINE ROLFE — wore sneakers to gym!

DEANNA RUGG — wasn't so rugged!

TERRY RUSSELL — didn't have his troubles!

JERE SNELL — wasn't a Big Bad Wolf!

BEVERLY SOPER — didn't know any Gould
Alumni!

LIZ STEVENS — became a preacher of the Gospel!

EVERETT SAUNDERS — grew a foot!

PAUL STEVENS — ran out of risqué jokes!

RONNY WILLARD — got in a row with a teacher!

BETSY WOOD — couldn't say "I wonder"!

DAVID WORCESTER — traded in his Ford for a newer model.

JANE YEATON — shied away from trouble so she wouldn't have gotten the nickname of Yattity, Yattity, Yeaton!

CAROL YORK — set up an Interstate Interests Tax!

Gehring Hall

In Gehring Hall, 7:00 a.m. is the unmentionable hour when the rising bell rings in a new day, and sleepy-eyed girls unwillingly climb from their warm beds to face the world. That is, every day except Saturday. This is the day of the cherished sleep-over, and the dorm is usually in dead quietness until some ambitious soul decides to move furniture, and in doing so wakes the other girls.

It is now Saturday morning in the dorm, and we find the girls performing a wide variety of antics which should prove interesting. Let's look in!

Coming upstairs and stopping at the first door, one is greeted by Val Kelch's victrola blattling Daddy-O as she merrily cavorts around the room, while Hallie, still bleary-eyed, feebly attempts to make her bed in rhythm to the music.

The next room is in total darkness. Who could it be? None other than Ann Boardway and Eleanor Merriam. The sleeping beauties are snoring peacefully.

Down in a hall by themselves, we find a very weird assortment! Mary Alice Chandler is laboriously untangling her clothes that got mangled in the washing machine, but Jeanne Gallagher, lying in bed with her eyes only half open, gropes blindly for the clock to see if she has to get up yet.

Patty Irving and Anna Chandler are arguing already about whose fault it was that they left the window open and froze last night, while next to them Martha Daland stumbles out the door to see what time it is and get some water to throw at Cleta Waldron who vows she'll never get up.

Barbara Schaefer and Anne Desautels have their room spotless already, and are preparing for their Saturday morning trip uptown, but Eleanor Moody and Nancy Bales are so engrossed in listening to WRUM that cleaning is forgotten.

Could that be little Judy Graffman making all that noise, or is it her roommate Nancy Hibbard? At any rate, their neighbors, Marty Myers and Connie Russell, are pleading for a little peace and quiet so they can sleep longer. Their motto: "Never clean now if you can sleep and clean later!"

Virginia Bergeron and Mary Huffer can be seen trudging out of their room with a huge rug that must be taken outside to be shaken. Is it worth it?

You avoid walking directly in front of the next door, as you invariably get hit with a dust mop that Betsy Wood is usually shaking at this time of the morning. Sylvia Cram, her senses not quite up to par yet, stands in the middle of the floor forlornly holding a dust cloth.

Somehow, Sue Andrews and Jean Ernst seem to have their room cleaned already. It must've been a miracle that got these two up so early.

What is this specimen of womanhood? Why, it's Margo McKenzie! Who else looks so lovely at 9:00 a.m. on Saturday? Eleanor Hardy seems to have a little more life as she pops a jazz record on the vic.

The end of the hall means one thing. Betty Murrell and Jane Yeaton are dragging their rug out into the hall and sweeping the dust off, and into 24 other rooms. It never fails.

Ann Ferris, who has stepped out of her room to shake the mop out the window gets considerably more in her face than outside, much to the amusement of Dianne Mitchell who slams the door quickly to keep out the flying dirt.

We climb another flight of stairs to third hall, which is much more alive than second at this time of the morning, and come first to a group of rooms commonly known as Sophomore Villa. Everyone is up, but needless to say, no one is ready for inspection. Sara Ault is practicing headstands (and ruining her bedsprings), while Judy Brown is on hand with some classic comments. Carolyn McDuffie, in the meantime, holds the door open for Connie Chase who is vigorously sweeping the dirt out. Which is it kids, no wastebasket or no energy to put it in the wastebasket?

Judy Watson, who had to wait on at some ghastly hour, has crawled back into bed to catch another forty winks; Jean von Ende, viewing the situation carefully, decides she'll do the same, even though she's not sleepy. The temptation is too great!

Lo and behold, the next room is all ready. Sue Corcoran is lamenting the fact that she didn't get up for breakfast and is now starved, but Meredith Bennett Doesn't seem to mind; she's busy checking off the days until vacation on her calendar.

The next room finds four hungry souls, Sue Fossett, Sally Webber, Pat Philbrook and Susan Dennison, all sitting around Indian style, munching crackers and cookies. Looks sort of like breakfast was missed.

A loud shriek warns us that we are near the room of Bobbi Cummins and Mickey Appleton. Bobbi, who still isn't used to the fact that she's no longer in the Arabian desert, shrieks, shivers and pulls the covers around her neck, while Mickey, deciding she'll freeze her out of bed, throws open the window.

A flying female reminds us that we have just passed the room of Patsy Elliman and Liz Stevens. Patsy is on her daily jaunt to borrow something from Betty, while Liz shouts from the door loud threats which she'll execute if Patsy's not back in five minutes to help clean the room.

Strange sounds lead us to the room of Peggy Luke and Anita Morel, who have just discovered it is 9:45, and prepare to make like Ajax Vacuum Cleaners before the usual inspection hour of 10:00 rolls around.

No one is home in Brenda Barlow and Heath Sandbach's room, but one could guess they are out enjoying their favorite pastime, horseback riding.

One glance tells you that the occupants of the next room are in. Can you miss them? Edie Stevens seems to be more interested in throwing water out the window at someone than cleaning, and Pat Joslin, disregarding all this, is rigging up a contraption that will fall on people as they walk in the door.

Leaving there while we still have a fighting chance, we cross the hall to where Tacy Hartley and Joan Fox reside. Tacy, torn between love and duty decides to pin up horse pictures instead of clean, so Joan, knowing only too well when she's licked, dutifully pushes the mop over the floor.

Last but not least on the hall is the room occupied by Evelyn Sturcke and Hilda Hubbard, who are lounging on their beds, reading their mail.

As we round the corner and start downstairs we are met by Tali Burns who emerges from her room in ski clothes, ready for a morning at the hill, while Shirley Van Hyning gazes out the window and dreams of palm trees and white, sandy beaches.

Our tour this morning has come to an end, but you can be sure that on any other Saturday morning you would be greeted in just about the same manner. In spite of the bleary eyes and dusty rooms you would agree that the girls behind them are well worth knowing.

GIRLS' DORMITORY

Holden Hall and Farnsworth House

We shall now participate in a swift round of the place the boys call home.

From room one we hear hot jazz accompanied by the over-loud drums of Bill Taillon.

Les Biggins, wrapped in colorful turban and robe, looks on with that usual rabbit-like expression.

Going down the sophomore alley to the right, we find the remaining "wise" freshmen from last year. At the moment, George Goodloe is studying hard, probably for those exams next week. At the end of the corridor we find "Gus" Whitten, Larry Bragg, and Bill Black engaged in a furious battle with those deadly weapons, nineteen cent water-pistols. Bill Gallagher, Gus' roommate? He's over "waiting on," but he'd be the star of the battle if he were here.

Leaving this alley, we barge in on an exciting game of pool. Jon Jenckes and Terry Russell are standing Bill Ripley (the Bangor kid) and Gates Ingram. Of course there is the usual argument over winners of Charlie Anderson and Jed Erskine versus Mike Ward and John Vinton. "Sometimes", however, the freshmen don't get their winners anyway. Emerging from this place of great physical and mental recreation, we saunter down to the end of the main alley where we find Ricky Cummins and Alan Ordway. Between Ricky's colorful displays from Arabia and Al's skiing trophies and Boy Scout awards, the boys have one of the most scenic rooms in the dorm.

Leaving their door, we turn right and descend to the basement where we hear music (?) emitting from the main room. Upon investigating, we find Howard West beating out "Down Yonder" on the piano while Russ Patterson adds his version of the same with a trumpet. 'Course part of the time you'll catch both of them in the butt-room along with Steve Randall, John Day, and Howard Brush. Those butt fiends!

Now we shall ascend to the second floor, home of the boys who use shaving cream for shaving. (?) The first room around to the right, the washroom, would vouch for that.

In the first room we enter, we find Jere Snell and Dave Knight discussing the prospect of the forthcoming basketball games. As of now, Dave has racked up an average of over 20 points per game.

Barging into the next room we find clothes heaped everywhere. At first glance, we recognize this paraphernalia as that belonging to Bill Anderson and Joel Stevens. Joel has just shoved off to the kitchen where he is chief bottle-washer. Bill has just ascended from the ski room where he has been adjusting his skis to those new number twelves.

Dan Lane has been writing letters to those girls in Massachusetts while his radio operates at full volume, with competition from next door.

John Giddings has just skidded to a stop, after basketball practice, at the farther end of his room and is about to become lost in an old issue of "Popular Science", which he probably hooked from me when I wasn't looking.

Craig Dore sits, paralyzed by the music emitting from his roommate Dave Knight's recording of the Student Prince.

Stan Cornwall is just embarking on his daily journey to the girls' dorm.

Bob Crane and Norm Hill have just finished a furious wrestling match in which John Manter from next door was referee. Of course, John took sides during part of the battle, receiving a worse beating than either of the other boys.

"Mouse" Myhrman is carrying out the usual procedure for this part of the day, studying, most of it being post-academic French in which he is a wizard.

Harry Reid and Joe Watson are mopping up a quarter of an inch of water which completely covers their floor, they and Howard Brush having just finished a fight with a water filled balloon. It appears that Howard threw it too hard the last time.

Around the corner we find Jeff DiBiaso has just run off an album of Spike Jones and is about to put one of Nat King Cole's on his Hi-Fi set. His roommate, Alan Lamson has just dragged in from another day of ski jumping. Oh, well, if he hadn't helped cover the jump with snow yesterday, he wouldn't be dragging his weary carcass in now.

My roommate, Alden Bradley, is fixing himself up for the usual trip uptown with his companion from the girls' dorm.

Taking a turn to the right, we enter the brilliantly lighted abode of Bill Beebe and Rod Barlow. Bill, another fellow from Arabia, is an expert drummer. (?) Rod is writing letters while Bill accompanies his records with his drums.

Next door we find Jack Reid, another ski enthusiast, throwing boots and clothes in every direction as he tries to get in a shower to enable him to head for the girls' dorm before 5:00 p.m.

We find Albion Beverage in Joe Brenchick's room, trying, apparently without effect, to explain that tough history assignment for tomorrow. Joe seems more interested in just sitting and staring at his walls. I can't say that I blame him!

This concludes our tour of Holden Hall. Descending the back stairs, we shall stroll to Farnsworth House (better known as the field house), where we shall visit the remaining freshmen under the supervision of Mr. and Mrs. Emery.

Here is Bill Thoms, pulling some new trick. He's well known for his playful actions, but he sometimes picks on the most innocent bystanders!

Steve Karpowich is trying to adjust his skis in his room, with slight difficulties.

Tim Hutchinson and Vance Bunker are having their usual battle on Bunker's reinforced bed.

Linwood Small we find studying, even though the commotion at times distracts his attention.

Student Council

The Student Council is an administrative organization, active for the past eleven years, whose members are elected each year by the student body.

This group, working in conjunction with its faculty advisors, Miss Colby, Mr. Myers, Mr. Brewster, and Mr. Vachon, supervises student activities, and discusses the various problems emanating from the students or faculty. Their many tasks include selecting special morning assemblies, maintaining the school bulletin board, and the selection of magazines for the library. Among the outside activities, they sponsor the annual Christmas formal, sell tickets at athletic events, and select ushers for any affairs where they are needed.

The money spent for authorized activities, which is raised by the Student Activity program, is approved by the Council. They also are the final authority on the spending of any of the Student Activity fee for non-budgeted sums.

The officers who were elected last fall, are: President, David Willard; Vice President, Valarie Kelch; Secretary, Sandra Myers, and Treasurer, Bartlett Hutchinson.

This group is composed of representatives from each of the four classes and is the clearing house for ideas suggested by any student for the improvement of current activities or the initiation of new programs.

The Blue and Gold

As twilight of the Blue and Gold's fourteenth year of publication approaches, many new and varied topics are found locked between its printed pages.

The co-editors, Valerie Kelch and Sandra Myers, and their assistant editor, Ann Hastings, have completed a splendid job. They inspired new names and titles for the departments, placing particular emphasis on the Girls' Sports by providing this section with its own headlines. The editorial column walked along a different pathway this year, getting away from the general topic of "school spirit" and broadening into wider interests.

Every person on the staff has his own particular contribution to make; it is his responsibility to fulfill his job to the best of his knowledge and capacity.

'Behind the Desk Cover' gives glimpses of the "personal" happenings of the students. The 'Someone Worth Knowing' column deals with the outstanding seniors. 'Fashions of the G.A. Campus' gives a report on the styles that appear around the school.

Here we learn through doing, which is a part of the new progressive education system. Our paper is absolutely uncensored and, we hope, always in the best of good taste. The Blue and Gold is an outlet for the ones who are talented writers, for those who wish to express an idea or thought to the school; it gives those on the staff many inspiring experiences as well as fun.

advisor, for his untiring encouragement and help.

We wish to give our most sincere thanks to Mr. Thompson, our faculty

Musical Activities

The Chapman Club began the musical year by giving an assembly program in the fall which was designed to convey to all the purpose of the Chapman Club, which is to provide an opportunity for those interested in fine music to exhibit their talents and to gain a better knowledge of the different phases of music. The varied program contained music of interest to everyone.

Music appreciation lectures were carried on throughout the fall season under the leadership of Mr. Marcuse. At these meetings, discussions were held about symphonic works and the various vocal compositions sung in different languages.

With several new members, the Gould band played with added zest this year either marching in formation down the football field, sitting in the gym, or at a concert. The new uniforms of the high-stepping majorettes lent an air of smartness to the group.

The four glee clubs, the Freshman-Sophomore Girls, Junior-Senior Girls, Boys' Glee Club, and the Varsity, were important parts in all programs. The Varsity Glee Club, which consists of the best girls' and boys' voices at Gould, was prominent in the Parents' Day Exhibition and in the Spring Concert. All the glee clubs were distinctively impressive at the traditional Christmas Vesper Service. The music was correlated with scripture readings of the nativity story. This service was recorded and rebroadcast over WRUM in Rumford, Maine.

The "Mikado", by Gilbert and Sullivan, presented in the William Bingham Gymnasium on March 27 by the glee clubs under the musical direction of Mr. Marcuse and the dramatic coaching of Miss Valeria Kimball, was one of the most elaborate productions ever staged at Gould. The constant practice of all to attain perfection in this operetta was appreciated by everyone who attended the performance. The soloists were James Murphy, Howard West, James Whynaught, Harriet Stevens, Eleanor Merriam, Betty Murrell, Charles Merrill, Martha Myers, and Cleta Waldron. The piano accompanists were Carla Grover and Dawne Christie.

Several girls and boys, outstanding members of the band and of the different glee clubs, represented Gould at the Western Maine Music Festival held in South Paris in January.

The annual Spring Concert was held in May. The theme under which the glee clubs sang was "Negro Spirituals." Much solo work combined with the renditions of larger groups made this concert outstanding in entertainment.

The musical organizations of the school contributed much to make this a successful year at Gould Academy.

French Club

This year the French Club officers appointed were as follows: President, Hallie Stevens; Vice President, Eleanor Merriam; Secretary, Martha Myers; and Treasurer, Margo McKenzie.

In the French Club throughout the many meetings the members have been avid participants in French games, working on the very unique French Scrapbook, and giving interesting reports on French Literature. During the meetings the leaders try to vary the program to suit individual interests with records, games, movies, and even comedy excerpts from such books as Cornelia Otis Skinner's gay Parisian story, Our Hearts were Young and Gay.

One of the festivities of the French Club was the jovial Christmas Party. Jokes were exchanged as "gifts", each containing a French verse. Yule logs and punch provided delicious refreshments. Also during the Christmas season a group of merry French students sang traditional French Carols to many of the families in Bethel.

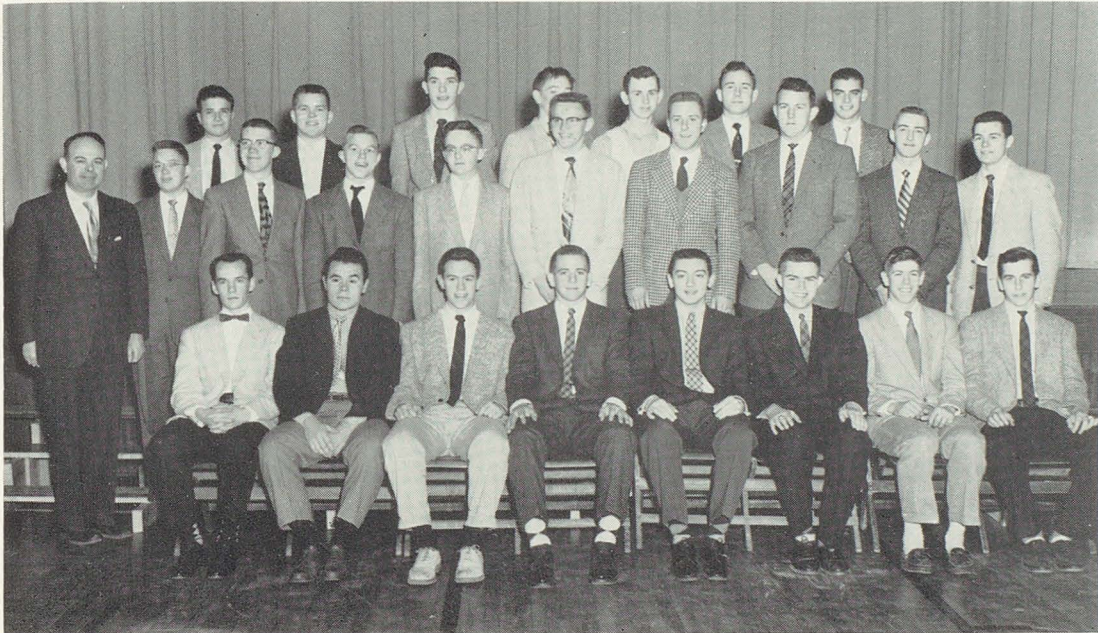

A gay party based on the idea of "Springtime in Paris" was the big night of the year for the club. The French Club worked very hard to make this party a success for everyone in school, succeeding admirably.

Another bright spot was the picnic held in the spring, at which the students played crazy games and ate with gusto.

With Miss Colby's assistance, the French club has been an interesting and worthwhile organization, furthering the knowledge of French customs, literature and people, through educational reports, movies, and articles.

Camera Club

While at a formal, special party, or a sports event of some kind, you are apt to see somebody hurriedly taking pictures of the affair. This person, nine times out of ten, will be an officer of Gould Academy's Camera Club, one of whose jobs it is to record the various events of the school. As soon as possible the film is rushed to the darkroom, located in the basement of Holden Hall, where it is developed, washed, and dried. After three or four days, you will see the pictures being sold around the school by club members.

The club was started fourteen years ago. Since then, there has been a steady flow of interest concerning it. Each fall, officers are selected for the coming year. This year's results are as follows: President, Alden Bradley; Vice Presidents, Ronald Willard and Eleanor Moody; Secretaries, Hilda Hubbard and Virginia Bergeron; Treasurers, Howard West and Larry Bragg.

Beginning in September, club meetings are held every other Tuesday, a total of sixteen this year. At these meetings one of the following usually is seen: a movie on films, lenses, etc.; slide talks given by some of the members; a demonstration on contact prints, composition, chemicals, etc., by either some of the officers or members. Of course, these meetings would not function so smoothly if it were not for the expert talks and demonstrations given us by the club's advisor, Mr. Gayle A. Foster.

Members and non-members alike are able to buy photographic supplies at the school store at huge discounts. Members also are entitled to use the two darkrooms, one in the girls' dorm and the other in the boys' dorm, whenever they want to develop or enlarge their own films and prints. Of course a slight fee is charged for the use of the darkrooms and materials, but a lot of money is saved, nevertheless. Members of the club also have the opportunity of learning by helping with the making of prints as a group project when a large number have been ordered. For this they receive free prints.

Contests are another branch of the club's work. The first one held this year was won by Dennis Robertson, who was given a book on photography for his crossword puzzle employing photographic terms. Various other contests took place throughout the year.

Another useful activity is the experience the members get in preparing prints for the Academy Herald, the Blue and Gold, for local church work, and for local and other newspapers.

Toward the end of May, preparation was begun for the Annual Show in which were displayed prints made in other years, prints made by club members this year, and some exceptionally good examples of photographic work done by professionals outside of the club. The show will be held from the 3rd to the 10th of June, and everyone should come and see what a fine job the club is doing.

In conclusion, many thanks are extended to Mr. Foster, the officers, and the members of the club for a very successful year.

Future Homemakers of America

One of the most helpful and well-known organizations for girls at Gould Academy is the Future Homemakers of America, more commonly known as the F. H. A.

This group of girls who are eager to develop their homemaking talents holds its regular meetings once a month. Also, this year the freshman, sophomore, and junior-senior home economics classes have organized class groups which hold meetings every Friday. The chairmen of these groups for the first half of this year have been: freshmen, Jo-Ann Roderick; sophomores, Kaye Blake; junior-senior, Virginia Bergeron. The present officers are: President, Arlene Chase; Vice-President, Eleanor Moody; Secretary, Deanna Rugg; Treasurer, Sandra Olson; Historian, Barbara Plummer; Song Leader, Glenyce Berry; Reporter, Carolyn Tibbetts; Parliamentarian, Jane Yeaton.

In November, Jo-Ann Roderick, Virginia Bergeron, Deanna Rugg, Kaye Blake, and Eleanor Moody attended the regional meeting in Buckfield, at which Deanna was elected the district chairman for next year. The theme of this meeting was "We Work Together to Develop Stronger Chapters." The girls went to the State Convention held at Augusta in April last year. "Are You a Leader for Better Homes?" was the theme of this convention.

At their regular meetings, since the hilarious initiation of fifty-eight new members in October, they have worked on the following projects: rolling bandages for the Red Cross, earning money by food sales to send to Care, preparing families for Civil Defense emergencies, studying a safety program for the school and home, keeping the school tidy through a school beautification plan, planning family recreation, and improving baby-sitting techniques.

In all their work, the girls strive to accomplish six purposes and goals set up for them by the National F.H.A. 1) To promote a growing appreciation of the joys and satisfactions of homemaking; 2) To emphasize the importance of worthy home membership; 3) To encourage democracy in home and community life; 4) To promote international good-will; 5) To work for good home and family life for all; 6) To foster the development of creative leadership in home and community life. 7) To provide a wholesome individual and group recreation; 8) To further interest in home economics.

Dramatics

Although to all outward appearances there is no formal dramatic club, nevertheless there is one which helps pay the expenses of the Carnival's three one-act plays and also the Senior Play; all of these theatrical efforts of the Gould student body are enthusiastically acted and viewed, besides bringing a feeling of accomplishment to the prop committees, ticket sellers, and advertisers.

"I'm a Fool", the first of the three one-act plays to be put on, was a humorous little story set in the early 1900's at a racetrack where George, Jerry Smith, a green teen-age youth, is bent on getting his education at the track; opposed violently to this are his mother, Mary Jane Spinney, and his sister, Glenyce Berry. Bill Taillon, the polished dude, brings George's sneers when he arrives on the scene and threatens to take the attention of George's sister and the two lovely young ladies, Elinor, Betty York, and Lucy, Dawne Christie, who are at the track with Lucy's brother Wilbur, Jon Day. In a manner different from most light stories, everything does not end too happily, and, alas, George's pretenses snarl him up, sacrificing the potential friendship of lovely Lucy.

After frantic changing of props, the curtain went up on "The Roman Kid", the story of a New York TIMES sports reporter, Tommy, Bart Hutchinson, as he hunts for information about ancient boxing matches in Rome. In his quest he meets a very charming Austrian girl, Leni, Connie Russell, and, after getting acquainted, proceeds to help her father, Danny Lane, the curator of a museum, out of a difficulty with two other archeologists, Herbie Morton and Howard Brush. Everything turns out pleasantly, though, and at the play's end, Tommy, as Mrs. Alfredo, Nancy Haines, has suggested, is making plans to marry Leni and take her back to New York.

"Mrs. Harper's Bazaar", a play concerning a group of harried members of the B.O.E., a ladies' club under the leadership of high-strung and bustling Mrs. Harper, Arlene Coolidge, wound up the evening. With shy, wide-eyed Mrs. Gwyn-Williams, Judy Graffman, talkative Mrs. Tearose, Anna Chandler, and the town mortician's wife, Mrs. Spindler, Ann Boardway, the story raced along, watching all the middle-aged ladies as they committed faux pas after faux pas in their haste to entice snobbish Hollywood glamour queen, Honey Walters, Mary Alice Chandler, to stay and unveil a statue of a mule, dedicated by the high-browed Mrs. Cunliffe, Susan Corcoran. Finally, after another incident during which Mrs. Harper's niece, Suzanne Dale, Barbara Leach, finds money to get to New York, Mrs. Tearose is lucky enough to contact her famous actress relative, Fay Ellis, Patsy Elliman, to take the place of the deserting Honey Walters. The bazaar is successful in the end after a mixup in furs is frantically taken care of, and the mule is finally ready to be unveiled.

Margaret Rolfe played the role of Ginger, a teen-age scamp, in the Class of '56's Senior Play, Time Out for Ginger. Among those aiding her in the obvious success of this comedy were Eleanor Merriam as Agnes, her "hale fellow well met" mother, and Matts Myhrman, as Howard, her harassed father. Ginger's intellectual boy friend, Tommy, played by Ray Coulombe, was quite a comparison to the football hero boy friend of her sister, Joan, Mary Chandler; taking the part of this rather brainless, brawny athlete was Jeff DiBiaso. Liz, Ann Boardway, was more like a family member than a maid, having as much say-so in matters as Jeanne, the sixteen-year-old daughter, or even Mr. Hoffman, Howard West, Howard's boss. Mr. Wilson, Danny Lane, the school principal, had to suffer with the three sisters, and their crazy boy friends attending his school.

This play, which ended the dramatic productions of the year, was, needless to say, one of the big events of the school year, enjoyable from every aspect.

Football

On the opening day of school, Coach Scott, assisted by Coaches Roderick and Kailey, met the many football candidates on the athletic field for the first day of practice. Two weeks later, the still unpolished but willing squad traveled to Mexico, where they were beaten by the almost veteran team, 20 - 0.

On the following Saturday the Huskies played the South Paris gridsters at Bethel. After the hard-driving G. A. eleven had pushed the ball to the South Paris two yard line early in the game, Jim Murphy crashed over into pay dirt. The try for the extra point was missed. The visiting team soon evened the score, and successfully made the extra point, this lone point to be the deciding one as South Paris won by the close score of 7-6.

The next Saturday found Gould playing a tight battle against Norway. The game, played before a damp but pleased Parents' Day crowd, ended with the Huskies on the bright side of a six to nothing score. On the opening kick-off full-back Bob Crane charged twenty-five yards to the forty yard line. Then on nine brilliant plays the fast moving eleven carried the ball into the end-zone. On the concluding play halfback Al Lamson flashed around right end for the tally. Capt. Brush and Gerry Smith played outstanding ball on defense.

Journeying to Lyndonville, Vermont, Gould dropped a hard-fought game to the scrappy gridsters of Lyndon Institute by the score of 16-13. In the first quarter fullback Gerry Smith crashed over for the first G. A. touchdown. Lamson's conversion was good making the score 7-0, Gould. However, Lyndon fought back savagely, first tying the score and then going into the lead 14-7. In the final period Gould ground out 70 yards, with Smith again plunging over for their final T.D.

St. Francis proved to be a team worth honorable mention when they upset the Huskies by the score of 27-6. The only score for Gould came in the third period when halfback Jim Murphy galloped 34 yards for the T.D.

The scheduled Cheverus game was cancelled because of numerous injuries on the Husky squad.

In the final game the Huskies trounced their chief rival, Fryeburg, by the score of 23-7 on Fryeburg's home field. In the opening minutes of the game a Reid to Jenckes pass clicked, bringing the pigskin deep into Fryeburg territory. Lamson followed by skirting right end for the touchdown; he then successfully kicked the extra point. The second Gould T.D. came in the second period when Lamson snagged another of quarterback Reid's passes and sprinted into the end-zone. The extra point was again kicked successfully by Lamson. The third and final six-pointer occurred when Jim Murphy, following long gains by Gould's speedy back-field, thundered over from the ten yard line. In the second half Gould tacklers broke through to score a safety.

Seniors seen for the last time in the Blue and Gold uniforms were Capt. Howard Brush, Joel Stevens, Joe Watson, Al Lamson, Dan Lane, Bob Crane, Jeff DiBiaso, Rod Harlow, Dave Willard, Harry Reid and Ken Rafuse.

We wish next year's team, led by Captain-elect Jim Murphy, the best of luck and a victorious season.

CROSS-COUNTRY, 1955

Cross Country

When the first half day of school was over, about fifteen boys met in the Field House for physicals and much encouragement from Coach Fossett. For three weeks the boys practiced, all being urged to take it easy for the first week or so. Sometimes they jogged over the course; other times they ran Devil's Kitchen and one or two laps. Once in a while time trials were held where the fellows really stretched out and gave it all they had.

Slowly the lame, tender leg muscles became accustomed to the rigorous runs. The short winded soon became used to the $2\frac{1}{2}$ to 3 mile courses. The first time trial was held; soon afterward the first meet was scheduled.

On September 23 Gould met Dixfield for their first triumph, 43-20. Leading in the meet by 100 yards was Reginald Wing of Dixfield. Jodrey, Whitten, Rolfe, Manter, Grover, Smith, and Benson all followed for Gould. Dixfield placed ninth through fourteenth consecutively. Gould's best runner, Phil Korhonen, was unable to run in this meet because of an injury inflicted during the summer.

Thursday, October 13, found Gould at Portland High School in another meet. Korhonen, after trailing Portland's best man for the whole course, broke away in a hundred yard dash to take first place. Portland's Verrill and Norm Ivers took second and third places, but Grover, Jodrey, Whitten, and Rolfe took places four through seven for an easy victory of 36-23.

The meet with Stephens High was cancelled by Rumford.

The Fryeburg meet at Freyburg was Gould's only dual meet defeat. True of Fryeburg took first place, with Korhonen a close second. Fryeburg took third and fourth while Gould's Jodrey, Rolfe, and Grover grabbed fifth, sixth, and seventh. Places eight and nine fell to Fryeburg with B. Benson of Gould tenth. Gould lost 30-25.

Gould outdistanced Hebron Academy for their final victory of 37-22 on October 26. Korhonen, as usual, placed first for Gould, about 20 yards behind Hebron's Moran. Gould's Jodrey and Rolfe placed third and fourth, with Langely of Hebron slightly ahead of Grover and Manter. Hebron was an almost sure bet for this, but they didn't have what it takes.

The consistent superior placing of Korhonen, just ahead of Jodrey and Rolfe, led the team to three out of four wins.

In '56 Gould should do well as we are losing only two runners, captain Frank Benson and this year's letterman, John Manter. The other lettermen for this year, Phil Korhonen, Mel Jodrey, Guy Whitten, Eldred Rolfe, Dick Grover, and Brad Benson will all be back for next year. Good prospects for next year are Tim Carter, Linwood Small, and Everett Saunders.

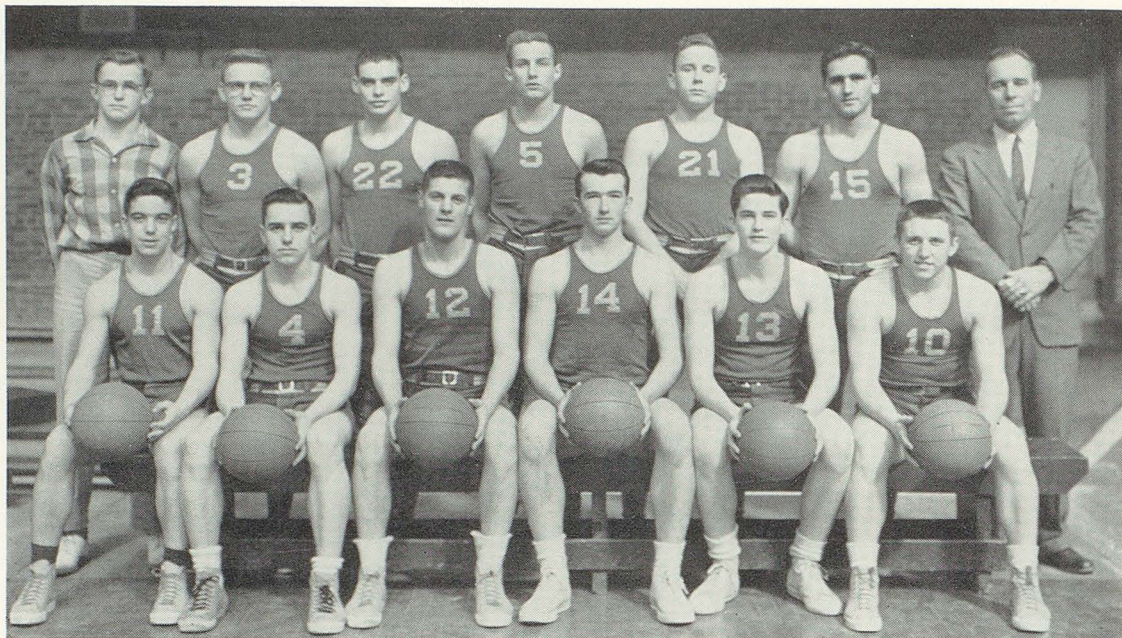

On his merit of his dependable placing, Phil Korhonen was chosen captain of the 1956 team.

The State Meet was held on Thursday, November 3. The team started their journey to Orono at 7 a.m., setting off in the new bus and arriving at the University of Maine about 10:30 a.m. This year's meet was divided into three divisions: Prep School, Class A, and Class B.

Gould, which was in Class A, finished eleventh out of fifteen schools, with Korhonen 22, Jodrey, Rolfe, Grover, and Manter following in that order.

Basketball

Strengthened by new material, the Gould Academy basketball team bettered its last year's record by five wins as it won six of its fourteen contests under its new coach, Mr. Wendall Brewster.

The Huskies were blessed with two newcomers well over six feet, Dave Knight and Jon Jenckes, who, along with veteran Merle White carried the scoring load.

Dave Knight set a new school scoring record in the points per game department as he dunked 221 points in his twelve games at the center position. His 18½ points per game tops the 18 set by Jerry Davis in 1949. Forwards Jenckes and White tallied 181 and 152 points respectively for game averages of 12 13/14 and 10 6/7.

Dick Roberts and Captain Dave Willard were the starters in the guard positions and scored 55 and 60 points from the backcourt.

The team's scoring punch couldn't be denied as the Huskies' rolled up a game average of little more than 55 points but lacked defensive strength as their opponents' was more than 59.

In eight Sun-Journal League games Gould won but three, finishing in the third place behind South Paris and Bridgton, both of which defeated Gould twice. A spirited Norway team also topped the Huskies nudging them 53-51 in what was probably Gould's poorest showing of the season. This cost them a split with Norway for the season as Gould had won in the first outing 60-47.

Gould's best efforts were 66-50 and 60-56 wins over Mexico, a 43-42 win over Wilton, and a 49-48 loss to South

Paris, the league leaders.

Reserves Jim Murphy, John Giddings, Rod Barlow, Norm Hill, and Guy Whitten saw important action as the season progressed. Fred Feitler and Jere Snell also saw some action.

Absent from next year's scene will be Dave Willard, Merle White, Dave Knight, Rod Barlow, and Norm Hill, all lettermen. Other lettermen, who will form the nucleus of the 1957 team are Dick Roberts, Jon Jenckes, Captain-elect John Giddings and Jim Murphy. Others to be counted on are Guy Whitten, Fred Feitler, and Jere Snell who will round out a promising squad. We wish them a successful season.

Coach Bowhay's junior varsity team supplied several men to the varsity during the season and gave invaluable experience to the younger players on the squad who will fill varsity positions in future years. Their record was seven wins and three losses. Of this year's team, Ted White and Mike Stowell show considerable promise.

Winter Sports

This year's ski team, resplendent in new sweaters, was inconsistent but on the whole had a good year, hampered as it was by lack of practice caused by poor snow conditions. The team, ably coached by Mr. Kailey, was composed of Captain Al Lamson, Ken Rafuse, Matts Myhrman, Gerry Smith, Richard Saunders, Alan Ordway, Jigger Jodrey, Bill Anderson, and Dave Fox, Stan Cornwall filling the post of manager.

Lack of snow forcing the Holderness meet to be canceled, Gould's first official competition came the next weekend at Lyndonville, Vermont, where the team scored a success. The cross country, in the morning, gave Gould the lead immediately, 97.2 to 92, with Al Lamson placing first, Jodrey third, Rafuse fourth, and Smith sixth. Since the alpine events were impossible with the snow conditions, the jumping was the deciding factor. Lyndon took the jumping, 98.34 to 96.30, but the final scores showed Gould on top 193.50 to 190.34. Lamson also copped the first position in jump, with Smith fourth, and Rafuse seventh.

Edward Little played host for the skiers the next weekend at their Winter Carnival, at which Rumford, Farmington, Kennebec, and Berlin were present. Due to the poor snow conditions at Auburn, the downhill and slalom were run on Friday at Sugarloaf Mountain in Kingfield. At the end of the day Gould was in second place, trailing Farmington by approximately ten points. In the downhill Lamson was third, Ordway fourth, and Saunders ninth and in the slalom Lamson was again third, with Jodrey seventh, and Saunders eleventh. On Saturday, with Smith third, Lamson fifth, and Saunders thirteenth in the jumping, Gould remained in second place, behind Farmington by about three points and leading E. L. by four-tenths of a point. Al Lamson won the cross country but Gould's next man, Jodrey was eighth putting us second in this event. The final tally showed that the spunky Farmington team had won the meet by .87 points, with E. L. second, and Gould a very close third.

The Stephens High Winter Carnival came next on the schedule, but consisted of only three events, the slalom being cancelled because of poor conditions. Placing first in the downhill, Lamson paced Gould to an early lead in this event, with Ordway third, Smith fourth, and Saunders tied for fifth. Tying with E. L. for top honors in the cross country, Lamson placing second, Jodrey eighth, and Rafuse ninth, the Gould team was in the lead after these two events. On Saturday Gould took a third in the jump, E. L. and Stephens taking first and second, but the Huskies' previous margin left them in first place. Skimiester Al Lamson took second in the jump, followed by Smith in fourth place, Rafuse in ninth, and Saunders in eleventh.

The state Class A Championship brought Gould another first place trophy, the Huskies edging second place E. L. by 2.81 points. The Alpine events, held at Bridgton, left Farmington in first place with Gould second. Norm Twitchell of Farmington won both the downhill and slalom with Skimiester Al Lamson placing second in downhill and third in slalom. Smith and Ordway placed sixth and seventh in the downhill and Ordway and Jodrey placed tenth and twelfth in the slalom, adding to the team score. With two second places in the Nordic events Saturday at Andover, Gould became Class A champion. In cross country Lamson took top honors with Rafuse, Jodrey, and Smith placing eighth, ninth, and tenth. In the jump, Lamson was second to Mike Small of E. L. with Smith fourth, Jodrey tenth and Rafuse twelfth.

The New England Interscholastic Ski Championship was held the next weekend at Lebanon, New Hampshire. Eleven teams from Maine, New Hampshire, and Vermont were present at the meet which the polished Lebanon High team won by nearly fifteen points. The cross country was won by Danny Donovan of E. L. with Lamson second, Rafuse ninth, and Jodrey tenth, Lebanon taking the team honors with Gould second. The downhill was won by Lebanon ace Roger Dion with Lamson second, Ordway ninth, Smith twelfth, and Saunders thirteenth, to give Gould top honors in this event. The slalom left Gould still in second place, Ordway placing ninth, Myhrman nineteenth, and Lamson twenty-fifth. First honors in the jump went to Dion with Lamson third, Smith sixth, and Rafuse twenty-second. Roger Dion won the coveted skimiester award, with Lamson second.

The last official meet of the year was the Eastern Interscholastic Ski Championship held at Lyndonville, Vermont. After a good season the bottom fell out from under the Gould team which placed fifth out of seven. The slalom and downhill held at Burke Mountain hurt the Gould score immensely, as the team placed last in both events. Gould's best men in slalom were Lamson, eleventh, and Myhrman, eighteenth, and in downhill were Lamson, sixth, and Jodrey, nineteenth. The Nordic events on Saturday showed improvement, Gould taking two thirds, but it came too late. Al Lamson became Eastern Cross Country Champ, beating the second man, Donovan of E. L. by only three seconds, Rafuse and Jodrey placing ninth and fourteenth. The jumping showed Al Lamson in fourth place, Smith in sixth, Rafuse in seventeenth, and Fox in nineteenth. Roger Dion again took the top honors in this event.

Considered as a whole, the team record this year was quite good in spite of the poor ending. Coach Kailey certainly deserves a great deal of credit for bringing the team through so well with so little practice as does Captain Lamson who was a constant point-getter throughout the season.

Adams allowed only seven singles and struck out 9. Returning for the Alumni besides Adams '54 were Dave Durgin '50, catcher Dick Budge '54, Ray Chase, Capt. '51, Francis Berry '44, Bob Croteau '48, Burt Rolfe, Capt. '50, John Brown '47, and Carl White '46.

Phil Rowe, who played varsity short-stop for four years, and Verne Corkum, a dependable catcher, will be missed greatly next year. Other lettermen not returning include Captain Howard Rolfe, Woody Burnham, Bill Lord, and Bill Daley.

John Manter, a fine outfielder and a consistent hitter, was chosen to be 1956 captain.

Track

In 1955, for the third year in a row, Gould's track team ended the season as State Champs. The Huskies took their first two opponents in two dual meets by a wide margin. Then, however, the Gould men, although making a good showing, took second place in a triangular meet with two Class L schools. The next contest, a dual meet, was a decisive victory for Gould. They then went on to capture the Oxford County Meet and the State Meet. The coaches, Joe Roderick and Mr. Scott, deserve much credit for the many helpful tips and time given each individual member of the team during the season.

On April 30, the first dual meet was held against Stephens High of Rumford. The Huskies were paced by Captain Dick Trimback and Howard Brush to a final score of 67½-49½. Trimback grabbed firsts for Gould in the 100 yard dash, the 220 yard dash, and the broad jump, while teammate Brush marked up a first in the shot put and two seconds — discus and javelin. Trimback's 100 yard dash time was a meet record of 10.4 seconds as was Jim Murphy's 440 yard run, with a time of 54.5 seconds. Wendall Bragg, Wesley Young, Bob Griffin, Harry Reid, Al Lamson, Bob Edney, Carl Corkum, and Phil Korhonen were the other team members who added to the total.

May 7 found the Huskies traveling to Farmington for a meet at Hippach Field. The weather was wet and the track in poor condition, but the team pulled through with a score of 65 to 52. Captain Trimback again led the pack with firsts in the 100 yard dash, 220 yard dash, and broad jump.

May 14 found Gould a host to two strong Class L schools, Edward Little of Auburn and Cony of Augusta. Captain Trimback again swept the 100 and the 220 yard dashes, and the broad jump to capture three firsts for Gould. Rod Barlow got a first in the javelin, while Jim Murphy copped two seconds for the Huskies, one in the 440 yard run and one in the discus. The outclassed Gould squad did a fine job, but Edward Little proved to be too strong for them taking the meet 66 to Gould's 45. Cony was third with 27 points. Squad members who added points to Gould's score were Carl Corkum, Howard Brush, Wendall Bragg, Phil Korhonen, Fred Fanning, Frank Benson, and Dennis Roberston.

On May 21, the Huskies participated in their third dual meet of the season, this time with Winslow. Capt. Trimback again took firsts in the 100 yard dash, 220 yard dash and broad jump to lead the scoring for his team. Paul Stevens, who had been gradually improving during the season, finally made it by taking first in the pole vault, clearing 9 feet 4 inches. Rod Barlow grabbed another first in the javelin, with Carl Corkum taking second place. First honors in the 440 went to Wendall Bragg, who was followed closely by Jim Murphy and Bob Griffin respectively. Another Husky to bring home a first in this meet was Al Lamson - 880 yard run. The high jump ended in a three way tie between Bragg, Edney, and Young. Other team members showing skill were Phil Korhonen, Fred Fanning, Norm Hill, and Dave Biggins. The Gould men captured all three places in the 440 yard run, the 220 yard dash, and the broad jump. They defeated Winslow to the tune of 77½ to 39½.

May 28 found a strong Husky team at Hosmer Field in Rumford for the Oxford County Meet. Captain Dick Trimback gathered firsts in the broad jump, 100 yard dash, and the 220 yard dash for the fifth consecutive time. Paul Stevens tied for first in the pole vault. The 440 yard run was won by Wendall Bragg, while Jim Murphy took second place. Others to grab seconds for their team were Bob Edney - broad jump, Howard Brush - discus, Wesley Young - high jump, and Al Lamson - 880 yard run. Gould was on its way to the State Meet with a 55 point victory stowed under its belt. Fryeburg Academy took second place with 45 points, while Stephens of Rumford and Mexico followed with 30½ and 11½ respectively.

On June 5 the Huskies departed bright and early for the State Meet at Colby College in Waterville, Maine. It was drizzling as the cars pulled away from the Gould campus; before the day was over it really rained in earnest. Captain Trimback again led the scoring with 13 points by gaining a first in the broad jump and two seconds in the 100 and 220 yard dashes. Wendall Bragg took first place in the 440 yard run, third in the broad jump and fifth in the high hurdles for a total of 9 points. Jim Murphy, who was right behind Bragg in the 440, brought home second place in this event, scoring 4 points for Gould. Rod Barlow, Norm Hill, and Howard Brush received two points each for placing fourth in the javelin, fourth in the 100 yard dash, and fifth in the shot put and 100 yard dash respectively. Wesley Young was in a four-way tie for third in the high jump, and Al Lamson was in a three-way tie for fourth in the pole vault. Once again Gould came out on top by winning the State Meet with a score of $34\frac{1}{2}$ points. Winslow was second with $26\frac{1}{2}$. showed fine ability and sportsmanship in '55.

Athletic Council

The Gould Academy Athletic Association is now ending its ninth successful year of supervising the schools sports program under the chairmanship of Elwood F. Ireland, Headmaster.

Some of the specific duties which the council meets are: the estimating and approving of budgets, the approving of all officials for home games, and the formulating, reviewing and approving of all athletic schedules, plus the meeting of any unexpected problems that may arise concerning sports.

The Council approves the awarding of letters when a boy has met the many requirements of a particular sport. A blue sweater with a woven "G" is given for outstanding service in athletics. The athlete must have earned either six successive letters, or a total of seven in all.

The Council is composed of five permanent members and five elected members. The five permanent members are: Mr. Elwood Ireland, Chairman; Mr. Ordell Anderson, Faculty Director of Athletics; Mr. Richmond Roderick, Boys' Physical Education Director; Mr. Wilbur Myers, Bursar; Miss Emily Tickell, Girls' Physical Education Director.

This year's elected members and their positions are as follows: Mr. Wendall Brewster, Varsity Coach; Mr. Leslie Davis, Trustee representative; Mr. Charles Chapin, Alumni representative; David Willard, Student Council representative; and Ann Hastings, Girls' Athletic Association representative.

Those earning sweaters in 1955 were Verne Corkum and Robert Edney.

Those receiving letters in 1955 were:

Girls' Physical Education

Under the capable direction of our new instructor, Miss Emily Tickell, our year got off to a fine start. Our varied program in gym includes many things which were difficult for us at first, but which became easier as time went on.

We have learned the fundamentals of ballet, which are a great help in our modern dancing; square dancing has also been enjoyed by many, and during the fall we received instruction in social dancing — the freshman and sophomore boys coming up from their regular classes in the Farnsworth Hall to join the girls, and thus getting the opportunity to improve their dancing. Another part of the new program is practice in marching, which although we're still far from professional, has been a lot of fun.

The objectives of marching and modern dancing are to help an individual to coordinate her body and think more quickly, to teach us poise, to give us fun and enjoyment, and most important of all, to give us the ability to cooperate, cooperation being an absolute necessity in the creation of march and modern dance routines.

As far as sports are concerned, we began with hockey in the fall, but because of a late start, the Blue and Gold game, usually the climax of the hockey season, will be played in the spring.

Volleyball was most successful this year, and basketball only slightly less so.

Among the girls who were interested in bowling, the five top bowlers were Margy Rolfe, Alice Rolfe, Jeannine Rolfe, Ann Hastings, and Sandra Olson.

Although skiing got off to a late start because of the lack of snow, the girls received fine instruction under the capable direction of Mr. Myers and Mr. Richardson.

Badminton, beginning after the close of the basketball season, is one of the most popular sports among the girls.

Many of the girls played softball in the spring, while others seemed more enthusiastic about tennis and archery, taught by Mrs. Richardson and Miss Colby respectively. Miss Colby also was our leader for hiking and took the girls on many long walks in and around Bethel.

Our interest in riding was shown by quite a number of our athletes, so it was arranged to have after-school classes for those interested.

An exhibition was given early in March, and as it was competitive in the fields of tumbling, marching, and modern dance, it really gave the girls a chance to prove just how well they could work together. Several girls also gave demonstrations of their ability on the trampoline.

We all wish to express our sincere thanks to Miss Tickell and the many others who have devoted so much of their time and energy to our gym program and have made it so enjoyable for each and every one of us.

Boys' Physical Education

One of the most varied and extensive programs carried on here at Gould is the boys' physical education program. Within the space of forty-five minutes each day, every boy participates in a variety of exercises and competitive sports, supervised by "Joe" Roderick.

Routine which can generate into boredom and disinterest is broken by dealing with the different seasonal sports and activities. In this way everyone finds something which he likes. In the fall and spring touch football, soccer, and softball are played out of doors. When poor weather arrives we move indoors to the cage. Here the boys enjoy the two hand and paddle ball courts and the badminton and volleyball court. Gould is fortunate to have a trampoline, which is nearly always in use. When the basketball court is set up on the cage floor, the rules and fundamentals of basketball are taught.

While the floor is down, "Joe" teaches tumbling on the mats and gymnastics on the apparatus. Each boy is given an opportunity to acquire muscular control on the horse, parallel bars and horizontal bar. This equipment is used primarily by juniors and seniors who have developed the muscles to support themselves on the apparatus. The upper classmen also have an opportunity to learn the fundamentals of self defense in boxing and wrestling.

Besides this varied routine, "Joe" enters the element of chance into every class period. Each boy has a numbered shell which is placed inside a bottle. If his number is drawn, he can spend the period doing anything he wishes. If a blank is drawn, everyone has his choice, and if a black shell is drawn, everyone must do twice the required calisthenics at the beginning of the period.

In the fall each boy is given a strength test which tests the strength in his arms, legs, back, and grip. Lung capacity, height and weight are also checked. This whole procedure is repeated in the spring to record his development over the course of the year. Special corrective exercises are given to those who have minor physical defects. A special corrective room is used for this purpose.

This fall "Joe" introduced a course in riflery. Instruction was given on proper handling of firearms, and each boy acquired a practical knowledge of the weapons by actually handling them. A test was given at the end of the course, those boys who passed being permitted one day's absence from school to go hunting, if accompanied by a parent.

Where else could you get so much in one class? No where but in gym, thanks to "Joe" Roderick!

Alumni

Even though some of you have heard from some of last year's graduates, there must be many who are wondering whether they are going to college, working, married, or in the service.

Let us begin with those who are farthest away and work toward home. In the Southwest corner of the United States we find Carter Taylor busily studying at the University of New Mexico. Then we step further north and find Ruth Mordecai enrolled at the University of Colorado. Judy McIntyre is at Hiram in Ohio, while Fred Fanning is at Illinois College both just a skip and a jump apart.

In New York Larry Spinney is attending Paul Smith College, and Mary Jane Goodloe is at Barnard.

William Daley is studying at Brown and seems to be doing quite well.

Coming up to Massachusetts we find many attending colleges. Nancy Harmon is attending Wellesley College, Judith Ward is enrolled at Endicott Junior College, and Betty Carter is at Katherine Gibbs, while Sylvia Ring is studying at Burdette College. Mary Guild is at the School of Practical Nursing in Boston, where we also find Suzanne Stowell in training at Massachusetts General Hospital. Lee Carroll is enrolled at Northeastern University, while David Biggins is studying at Nichols Junior College.

As we travel farther north in New England, in the state of Vermont, we find Robert Edney at the University of Vermont, Cynthia Hall at Middlebury College, and Elinor Webster and Carolyn Weymouth at Vermont Junior College.

Close by, in the state of New Hampshire, is the University of New Hampshire. Among its new students are Curt Mead, Phil Rowe, David Lord, Lorelle Jordan, and Linda Campbell. Jane Smith is also in New Hampshire studying at the Mary Hitchcock Hospital at Hanover.

Last, but not least, we have arrived in Maine where we find many loyal graduates who just can't desert this wonderful state. Dale Stevens, Edward Carter, James York, Mary Jane Chapman, Wendell Bragg, Alice Lane, and Ann Duce are enrolled at the University of Maine, while Dianne Watson, and Carol Ludwig are in Portland attending Westbrook Junior College.

Pat Allen and Beverly Noyes you would find in Lewiston; Pat is at Bates College while Beverly is at the C. M. G. Hospital. In the neighboring town of Auburn you could find Mary Bennett enrolled at the Auburn School of Commerce.

Among those who have stepped so quickly into the world to make a living is Barbara Hulbert, who is holding a responsible job in Gould's office. Others in Bethel include Franklin Harrington, who is working for the Bethel Feed and Grain Company; William Coolidge is at the Riverside Farms, working for Harold Bennett, the owner; Howard Rolfe is also at work in the town of Bethel. Edward McDonald, Kenneth Bumpus and William Lord can be found in the woods, working diligently.

In neighboring towns we also find many alumni. Dorothy Foster is working for the United Stores in Rumford. In Hanover, Hilda Rafuse is employed at Howe's Store; George Stowell is working at Stowell's Mill in Bryant Pond. Norman Davis is working for the town of Newry.

Portland, Maine, has two of our graduates: Shirley Mason and Ruth Hall. Shirley is at the Central Maine Power Company, while Ruth is working as a secretary.

In Turner, not so far away, Malvern Wilson can be found practicing farming.

At the present time, David Stevens, Eleanor Sumner, Lorita York, Alma Merrill, Richard Trimback, Athur Head, Rose Beverage and David Vincent are living at home.

Of course we musn't forget those who have found "their man" and seem to be quite happy, among them Mary Jane Cole, Pat Gunther, who is in Oklahoma, and June Merrill and Iva Rugg, living in Norway and Bethel respectively.

The following are now in different branches of the service: Vern and Carl Corkum are in the Navy, Vern in Virginia, Carl in Mississippi; Edward Burnham is in the United States Marines, stationed in North Carolina, while Richard Gilman is in Geneva, New York, serving in the Air Force.

We would like to wish these graduates success in any field they may be in, and hope we may see and talk to them about their many experiences of this past year.

CLETA WALDRON, '56

GIRL BOWLERS
